

Character profile for Thomas Willis (18)

Basic Statistics

Name: Thomas Willis

Age: 18

Nationality: British

Hometown: Coventry

Current Residence: Allseley Green, Coventry

Occupation: Soldier

Birth: 16/02/1896

Siblings: Thomas Willis has one brother, and they are very close, they have been since they were very young. George Willis is 5 years younger than. George wants to go to war with his big brother, but his mother doesn't want him to as he is too young to serve and she's scared of losing both her sons.

Spouse: Tom is not married at this time

Children: Tom has no children at this time.

Relationship skills: Good

Physical Characteristics:

Height: 5'9

Weight: 154-166

Race: White Euro

Eye Color: Brown

Hair Color: Brown

Skin color: White

Tom wears British Army Uniform.

Mannerisms: He is very charming and has lots of friends, he is easy to talk to and cares a lot about other people.

Habits: He smokes cigarettes.

Health: Very healthy

Disabilities: None

How the Character is Involved in the Story

Character's role in the story:

Tom (18) is going to be in a pub in front of participants involved in a local project called Discover Coventry. Tom will be asked questions by the participants about how he found the war and what he plans to do now the war is over.

Place where character first appears:

The first place we see the character will be in photos, hidden around a small garden area in the city of Coventry. There will be photos of him ranging in ages. We will also hear him at this location, QR codes will be placed on the back of the photos, which link to audio files of Tom explaining what is happening and how he felt at the time the photo was taken.